Printed dimensions are measured to the exterior boundaries of the exterior walls and the centerline of interior demising walls and will likely vary from the dimensions that would be determined by using the descriptions and tolerances in the Form and Work in the Declaration. Unit typically include the noted wall space that the boundaries of the demising wall and each side extend to unpainted non-finished surfaces. Additionally, areas of ceramic, tile, marble, or the like are only those planes and planes of the applied ceramic tile, marble, or the like. Unit typically does not include the structural chase/piping. Plumbing fixtures and fittings are not to scale. All dimensions are approximate and subject to change without notice.
